

Woodworking & Cabinetry Southgate Woodwork

David Richards 178 W Meeting St Downtown

David has been a Master cabinet and furniture craftsman for 35 years. You are invited to their home to view his work and see the lovely custom kitchen he designed, made and installed. Each project is one that both he and the customer can be proud.

Jewelry Making Shepards Inn Porch

Roxy Jane Jewels 136 E. Main St Downtown

Susanne Neidert & Janet Stephenson partner to create dichroic jewelry inspired by individuality with a contemporary flair. Roxy Jane welcomes you to experience their sassy, sophisticated, speak-to-me jewelry.

Hairpin Lace Shoppes at Roper Mansion

Karen Keith-Ferguson 218 W Main St. Downtown

Ms. Ferguson will be demonstrating the lost art of hairpin lace. She blends today's vibrant and sassy fibers into fun and fashionable scarves.

Pyrography Steamer Trunk/ Campus Cargo

Michelle Howe 102-106 W. Meeting St. Downtown

Pyrography is the art of wood burning. Michele incorporates this technique with painting for extraordinary results. She has sold work all over the United States and Canada. Visit Ms. Howe to see this unique technique.

Painting Shepards Inn

Kay Alexander 136 E Main St Downtown

Local artist, Kay Alexander, will display her paintings and will have a several for sale. She is known for her paintings of Dandridge, and her usual medium is watercolors. Kay will be also demonstrating her painting techniques.

Painting Edward James Gallery Roper Mansion

Sue Messer 218 W Main St Downtown

Sue grew up in Eastern Kentucky with a love of the mountains, family and nature. She is self-taught but has honed her skills through classes in acrylics, watercolors, and oils. She is a Dandridge resident and shows her work in a number of regional art shows.

Chair Caning Rachel's Attic

Dawn Modugno 149 E Main St -Gay St. Downtown

Ms. Modugno, a Dandridge resident, specializes in seat weaving, both caning and pressed cane, and splinting and rushing seats. This is almost a lost art and in high demand to refurbish antique and vintage furniture.

Painting Alleyway by Jarnigan Ins. & Talley Law Office

Bobbie Lamons Lovell 141 E. Main St Downtown

Born near the Great Smoky Mountains and an area resident, Ms. Lovell's artistic spirit is deeply rooted in the beauty of the region. Besides her own work, Bobbie will also show the work of several of her students.

Painting Edward James Gallery Roper Mansion

Jeri Dunn 218 W. Main St Downtown

Ms. Dunn is a juried watercolor artist and has shown her work in Pennsylvania and Tennessee.. She graduated from the University of Illinois at Chicago with a BS in Architectural Design.

Ceramics Leia's Wrap Cafe

Mary Bow 1237 Gay Street Downtown

Ms Bow's functional artwork reflects her love of the outdoors and the natural world. She will be demonstrating how she makes clay talismans and decorates them with beads and raffia.

Found Object Art Maxwell House Porch

Pat Phillips 139 E Main St Downtown

Ms. Phillips is self-taught and has had a love of all things arts and crafts. She starts with simple and familiar items and creates one-of-a-kind flower arrangements.

Stained Glass Studio / Home

Todd Eaton 1622 Wagon Circle

Mr. Eaton will show his work in his home so you can get an idea of finished products and applications. Custom designed stained glass and repurposed wood remnants and other objects found in flooded forests and Douglas Lake compose his art.

Weaving Historic Gass Bldg. Porch

Wilderness Weavers 149 E. Main St. Downtown

Gloria Beauchamp, Diana Bruhn-Hafner, Sue McDuff, Jolene Powell, and Chris Rice will demonstrate a variety of weaving, spinning and dying techniques.

Quilting Shoppes at Roper Mansion

Sharon Buck 218 W. Main St Downtown

Ms. Buck has been an award-winning quilter for the last eight years. She is known for both her pieced and art quilts and has studied under a number of great quilters. The work shown is entitled "Moon over Tokyo."

Jewelry Studio / Home

Carolyn C. Francis 512 Cline Road, off of Hwy. 92

Carolyn is a graduate of Carson Newman College with a degree in Art. She has been a potter of Booger Bottles and exhibited in Tennessee and surrounding states. She has also been a school teacher, tailor, a proof-reader, and a landscape painter.